"Divide Things, Not Families"

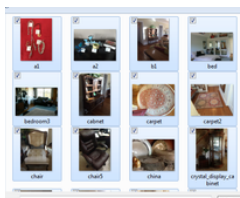

Easily Upload Appraisals or Photos - Let AI Help You List, Describe, Categorize, and Value Quickly

With FairSplit's patented division tools and AI-assisted platform, you can seamlessly upload appraisal data or just photos to inventory items, assign values, and determine what should be kept, sold, or donated.

Invite family members or trusted professionals to participate -from anywhere. No more time off work, costly flights, or shuffling big packets of paperwork.

Everything is securely organized, shared, and handled online - saving time, reducing conflict, and allowing your family to focus on what matters most during life's transitions.
